Paragraph Writing

Q: Write a paragraph about the importance of kindness.

Kindness is really important in our lives. When we are kind to others, it makes a big difference. Everyday, we meet new people, and being kind to them can leave strong impression. It shows we care and respect them. Kindness is also being there for each other during tough times. When we show kindness, it often comes back to us when we need it the most. So let us choose kindness. It is like a warm feeling that spreads through us.
